John,

As discussed just to remind you that Keltbray and CAPCO have expressed a willingness to assist in any way they can.

As you know Keltbray are currently working on the demolition of Earl's Court exhibition centre and have significant demolition, structural engineering and Health & Safety expertise at their disposal. Their contact is Jim Morrison on [REDACTED] who has offered to attend the scene with one of his structural engineers if you think they can be of assistance.

CAPCO have explained that have some large land assets in West London which they might be able to make available if needed.

Sent on behalf of Paul Dorman
